CLASS INFORMATION & DESCRIPTION

Equitation Over Fences/Under Saddle: Rider will be judged on hand, seat, guidance, and control of horse. Overall presentation will be considered.

Hunter Over Fences/Under Saddle: Horse will be judged on obedience, alertness, responsiveness, and freedom of movement. Overall turnout will be considered.

Hunter Hack: Horse will be judged on performance and obedience with an emphasis on manners on the flat and over two fences not to exceed division height. Horses in Elementary Hunter division may be asked to hand gallop individually. Horses in Low Hunter division may be asked to hand gallop in groups of no more than eight. Overall turnout will be considered.

Medal class: To be shown over a jumper-type course at divisional height. Rider will be judged on hands, seat, guidance, and control of horse. Top riders may be called back to ride special test at judge's discretion. Overall turnout will be considered.

Jumper course A/B: will be placed according to time and penalties only.

A highpoint prize will be awarded to one horse/rider combination per division. To be considered for highpoint, horse/rider combination must have competed in the medal class for that division. Overall champion and reserve champion will go to the horse/rider combination with the highest number of points having competed in at least one medal class.

Points are awarded for 1-6th place as follows:

Medal Classes: 12-8-6-4-3-2

All other classes: 8-5-4-3-2-1
